

A Uniform Company should provide more than just clothing - they should be a part of your service image

Clean Uniform is a locally owned company serving this area since 1938. They are proud that their headquartered in St. Louis, Mo! We have decision makers located right here in Missouri. This ensures a strong partnership between our membership and Clean Uniform.

Their goal, above everything, is to provide the best customer service, 100% accurate delivery, and the top inventory management service.

Clean Uniform's inventory management system ensures that you will always get 100% accurate deliveries, guaranteed. Each garment is RFID-based Total Accountability Garment System (TAGS), meaning everything is always accounted for when it's our cleaning process.

All garments go through a 4-stage quality control process in our facility, so we catch 98% of repair needs in-house.

- No erratic changes in billing. Clean has a website that is easy to access and gives billing details - at your fingertips.
- Worried about adding new employees? Clean has that resolved too, with 1-4 day turnaround on uniforms!
